P.R. Employee of the Year

Denise Cowdrick was chosen as the Employee of the Year for 2010. The other nominees were Patricia Atencio-Allen, Nancy Heller, Cheryl Laser, Jeff Lucas, Cheryl Martin and Michael Nelson. The rotary club was excited to host the event for the 33rd year with many city officials attending along with 30 Rotarians. The entire afternoon was enjoyed by all. The winner, Denise Cowdrick, is one of the City's "behind the scenes" unsung heroes who is tucked away in an office by herself as the sole member of the City's Pension office. Denise synchronizes the activities of actuaries, attorneys, investment managers, 3 pension boards and 17 pension trustees. Her extensive knowledge of and experience with pension benefits along with her sensitivity to employees and their families who are making retirement decisions is commendable. During the last year, Denise played a major role in working with the spouses of a terminally ill employees in order to get retirement documents completed in a timely manner. Denise's ability to effectively and compassionately work with the spouse who was dealing with end-of life decisions is an example of Denise's unique professionalism. She works tirelessly behind the scenes and her dedication, work ethic and professionalism are unparalleled. Her passion to help others and her empathy and commitment to making retiree's futures more secure make her a valuable asset to the City of Pinellas Park.

The symbolism and recognition is to say "Thank You" for making a difference in our club and community and in the lives of less fortunate people in the world.
