May Students of the Month

Pinellas Park HS honored their May Students of the Month. Marija Preradovic is active in student government, FEA, SHS, SWAT and Drama. She holds office as the President of the Senior Class of 2010, Vice President of the SHS 2009 and Senator for the FEA - 2006 thru 2008. She has volunteered numerous hours working with children in the Big Brothers & Big Sisters of America and has received awards for leadership in her two government positions and as best supporting actress in the drama club for 2009. She plans to attend SPC and then transfer to UF to obtain her Masters Degree in Multi-Media. Even with all of her extracurricular activities, she still maintains a 4.039 GPA.

Trevor Bryant is active in Topping's Side Bar, NHS, FPSA, LHS and Skills USA. He holds positions as Sargent of Arms for the FPSA and Treasurer of LHS. This year, Trevor and his fellow FPSA members brought home the First Place trophy for FPSA. He has volunteered numerous hours at the Veteran's Affairs, Rib-Fest, Parent-Aide, Ronald McDonald House, Teen Court and Project Save-A-Smile. He has been awarded a Doorways Scholarship through the Pinellas Education Foundation, Veteran's Affairs volunteer for 2009 and Student of the Six Weeks for the Criminal Justice Academy. Trevor plans on attending SPC, then transferring to USF to receive a B.S. in History & a Masters in Education. Even with all of his extra curricular activities, Trevor maintains a 4.1915 GPA.

Dixie Hollins HS Principal, Michael Bohnet, introduced his Students of the Month for May. Ashley Comunzis has several academic honors, including Miss DHHS. She has volunteered numerous hours with the Keswick Christian School Summer Camp and the Westgate Elementary after school music club. She holds positions as Vice President of NHS and President and Secretary of the Fellowship of Christian students. She is also participates in mission trips with and regularly attends Fifth Avenue Baptist Church. In addition, she has held employment at Chick-Fil-A for 3 years. She plans to attend Shorter Baptist University in Georgia and major in Music Education. She hopes to eventually become a high school Band Director. Even with all of her extracurricular activities, she still maintains a 3.8 GPA.

Kevin Greenlaw is always on Honor Roll with his 3.5 GPA, he participated in the Dixie Chorus for 4 years, was a member of the Vocal Ensemble group and he is very activated in church activities. He participates in fundraising through the Pinellas Park Baptist Church. He plans to join the Marine Corp and attend college to major in Criminal Justice or Business. Kevin was not able to attend our meeting.

Richard L. Sanders School Teacher, Erin Porter, introduced their Students of the Month. 5th Grader, Eric Drake, likes playing video games, drawing and building things in his free time. He loves art and hopes to become an artist. 7th grader, Derek Hollo-man, is very proud of his accomplishments this school year. He has developed an appreciation for Sciences and Geography. He likes to play basketball games on his PS3. He played center on the basketball team at the Forbes Recreation Center and earned a trophy for good sportsmanship. He would like to attend Seminole or St. Pete H.S. and eventually UF where he hopes to play basketball. 9th grader, Jessie Park, is a hard-working student with good grades. He is currently involved in karate/martial arts but is also very interested in gaming (virtual and video). Jessie plans to take a year off after graduating and then enlist in the Marine Corp. Once he is on active reserve, he hopes to attend Full Sail University to study game developing.

Happy Events: Phyllis Tellor's H/E was that she, along with several other members, attended the district assembly this past weekend and had a good time learning a lot of new things. In addition, she was happy to see Rotarian, Jim Huber, from the Dunedin club who will be picking our brain on a "how to do a bowlathon." Jerry Wennlund's H/E was that one of his twin daughters, Tara, got her first-ever job. Hopefully, sister Erica will get the idea and follow suit. Hope Peterson paid a happy $5 to announce she will be leaving to go to the district cruise for fun and fellowship. Kevin Burkart paid a happy $5 as he was unable to attend the district assembly and thanked Jerry K. for taking notes for him in his place. Bruce Cloud's H/E is that his granddaughter is coming from Wyoming to visit with her two children next week. Kevin Krauss had two happy dollars for son, Cory, graduating from St. Pete Catholic and starting college several weeks later at UCF. Joe Kolodziej paid a happy $5 as he got that new truck that he won painted, lettered and ready to go this past week. Pete Molinaro paid a happy $20 for a whole bunch of stuff. His list was too long to mention, so he said I didn't have to elaborate. However, his new name is the "Black Cloud." Theresa Malkie, a guest from Sanders School, paid a happy dollar for the honor Eric Drake received from our club. Dick Breske's H/E was worth $7 for the most recent Ray's wins. David Sideri paid a happy $5 because his son moved to Vegas a month ago and he hasn't asked for money yet. Don Higgins' H/E was that he thought he was on time. It turned out the bell went off early and he was really late? Tom Stewart's H/E was that daughter, Rebecca, will sing the National Anthem at a Clearwater Thrasher game and has a second audition to sing at the Ray's game. Also, daughter Amanda finally got a job.
