One of his favorite things to do is research and write The AuCoin Report – News Briefs from the Great Outdoors.

Bill's clients include Visit St. Petersburg-Clearwater, Wrangler, Ono's Trading Company, Southwest Florida Yachts and Florida Sailing & Cruising School. His professional career included 18 years for a Fortune 500 firm in Chicago and 3 years as a reporter for United Press International in the Memphis bureau where he covered the shooting death of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., among many other major stories.

Bill grew up in Mobile and reports that "It was a terrific place to grow up. There were lots of woods to roam and ponds to fish with neighborhood and school friends. Fortunately, we didn't have the distractions that kids have today -- no cell phones, no e-mail, no text messaging, and not much to watch on black-and-white TV either."

His favorite thing to do when he's not working? Yep, fishing.

Last Week's Program: Don Higgins talked about the benefits of "Social Network Fellowship". Through the efforts of Rotarians like Don Higgins, it has been approved by Rotary International. Facebook is the fastest growing social network. You can create profile pages and groups. By utilizing Facebook, you can renew old relationship and make new ones. According to Don Higgins' cousin, Tom, who just recently graduated from college, "Facebook is obviously the best tool for social networking. It is a multi media source which allows you to smoothly integrate text, video and pictures. You have the ability to talk as a group or one on one." Rotary International has a page on Facebook that currently exceeds fifty thousand fans compared to twenty thousand a year ago. These fans are Rotarians or potential Rotarians. It is an opportunity for us to inform the public and recruit new members. Facebook was started in 2004 by a gentleman named Mark Zuckerberg. In terms of number of people, Facebook is equal to the third largest country in the world. In addition to Facebook, Twitter is a great way to track up-coming Rotary events. If you are interested in joining Facebook, all you need is an e-mail address and a password. Facebook can be found at www.facebook.com

Happy Events:

Phil Burns gave a happy $3– He is happy to be here with his grandson. Phil will return to North Carolina in a few days. Phil England’s H/E– His mother was on Bay News 9 talking about his grandfather’s World Series Ring that he received from George Steinbrenner. Ken Bray gave a happy $2– He had a fabulous vacation and stopped by to see the Burn’s family in North Carolina. Joe Minarik gave a happy $2– John Donaghy is back and he visited Joe’s wife. His “not so happy” dollar is the grandkids turned the Hot Tub black. He is still not sure what they put in it. David Sideri gave a happy $5– He was able to spend the weekend with friends that he graduated high school with. They will all turn the big “5 0” this year. Kenny Krauss’ H/E– He and Jerry are going on vacation to go fishing in Canada. Hope Peterson gave a happy $3– She appreciated the board’s support for the first meeting. Phil elaborated on his grandfather’s World Series Ring. Kevin Burkart’s guest, Bob Berman, gave a happy $2 for the Rays’ wins and the All Star Game. Jerry Wennlund’s H/E– He is just happy today. Jerry Krauss’ H/E– He is happy to have a new bulletin editor and thinks she is doing a great job. Tom Stewart’s H/E– Wells Fargo has relocated his office to Tampa. He will now have a 45 minute round trip to attend the rotary meetings. Tom will hold the record for the most distance traveled to attend a rotary meeting.

50/50 Winner: Ken Bray won the $9 pot and donated it back to the club. Next week - $153.00.
