Making A Difference!

Last Week's Program:

Program Chairman David Sideri and his staff provided a tour of the ADTEC II facility, located at 5440 70th Avenue in North Pinellas Park. ADTEC II is a research and development company with over 50 years of experience specializing in plating precious and semi-precious metals used by airlines and other companies. Plating is done through precise chemistry which is useful in the specialized microwave industry, and producing parts made to exact specifications. All lab information is controlled by Chem Trak plating software. The company motto is:

"We Finish First"

This Week's Program:

Program Chairperson Janet Waddell will introduce Tom Mudano, the Executive Director of AmSkills, an apprenticeship training program designed to train and prepare young people and adults for jobs in manufacturing.
